Thanks for the call Simon. And the opportunity.

Just had a long chat with Niall B. Will see him Wed or Thurs of this week to hammer things out.

Warmest, as ever

Simon - re Special Envoy

Niall B and I had a productive meeting today. He's preparing a short concept note for you. We both agreed that 2 years would be a more realistic timeframe to achieve the objectives, with a one year review report into you on the model.

Thanks again for this privilege and opportunity.
