

St Brigid's Day Partner Events

Alongside the Embassy's event on 1st February, we are delighted to highlight the below exciting events from our partner organisations

London Irish Centre

The Centre will host a mixed bill, gala concert celebrating the creativity and resilience of Irish women hosted by Tara Flynn featuring art, spoken word and music at the London Irish Centre.

A special exhibition "Crown" by Breda Mayock which explores the subject of hair with Irish Traveller women and girls will be available to view at the London Irish Centre free of charge on the night.

Saturday 29th January 2022, at 7:30pm. Tickets are available online from £14.

Irish Cultural Centre Hammersmith

The Irish Cultural Centre invites you to come and celebrate St Brigid's Day with the renowned Casey Sisters!

These sisters from West Cork – fiddler/singer/composer Nollaig, harper/composer Máire, and singer/fiddler/composer Mairéad – received great critical acclaim for their debut CD together, Sibling Revelry – one of The Daily Telegraph's Folk Albums of the Year.

Sunday 30th January 2022, at 7:30pm. Tickets are available online at £20/18.

Irish Film London

Irish Film London's St. Brigid's Day programme includes a month-long shorts programme of female-led films, including a Q&A with the filmmakers, available exclusively via their Irish Film From Home online platform. More info is available on their website.
